David joined Inland Companies as a Property Manager in July 2008.

Prior to joining Inland, David worked as a Property Manager handling a portfolio of apartment, condominium and commercial properties exceeding 350 units. David's specific property management experience includes supervision of various maintenance crews, contractors and vendors, tenant marketing and lease negotiations, property financial analysis and budget preparation and day-to-day general operations of the properties.

David is a licensed real estate agent and also has experience with property management and pre-sale activities of ground-up new construction condominium projects, including sales & marketing strategies and contractor negotiations and has worked closely with construction teams, developers and owner representatives alike.
