Joe joined Inland Companies as an Associate Broker in September 2009.

Joe has been involved with real estate since 1994. Joe is a valuable addition to the Inland team because of his vast experience on the residential side. Specifically, Joe has extensive experience with land acquisitions, entitlements, condominium associations and disposition. He also has comprehensive knowledge and experience with community based residential facilities.

Joe has been providing BPO services for over eight years and specializes in multi-family and mixed use assets, always coming up with creative ideas to maximize client value.
