Joe started his career with Inland Companies in October 2005 as an intern. Upon graduation from UW-Madison in May 2006 he accepted a full time position as an Associate Broker. His duties include assisting in commercial development, construction, leasing and sales of various commercial projects. Joe is also responsible for research and analysis.

Prior to Inland, Joe operated Lak Property Management and was responsible for the management of various commercial and residential properties within the Metropolitan Milwaukee area. Joe also worked in the Real Estate Department of The Conservation Fund on their Wisconsin and Michigan initiatives. His efforts were focused on open land acquisition, zoning regulation and tax credit research.

In addition to his education in Madison, Joe studied at the Albert Ludwig University in Freiburg, Germany where he was a student of European Economic Policy.
