As part of the Inland Companies Office Brokerage team since August 2006, Lyle focuses on owner and tenant representation and sales to investors and owners of real estate. His consultative approach and successful track record has earned him the respect of his peers, as well as his clients through the Milwaukee area.

Lyle's in-depth knowledge and understanding of the local commercial real estate market along with his tireless work ethic ensure his clients make well-informed real estate decisions. He accomplishes this through a clear understanding of his clients' objectives as he implements a thorough strategy within every detail of the assignment.

Lyle is currently responsible for the leasing and sales of 1.7 million square feet of space. His representative client list includes M & I Bank, Transwestern Investment Company, The Geneva Organization, Zeller Realty, Joel Lee, Dermond Properties, State Farm Insurance and Staffing Now.

Prior to joining Inland Companies, Lyle worked as a broker with NAI MLG Commercial. He was also a sales manager with Vector Marketing Corporation.
